

The National Association of Professional Organizers
San Diego Chapter
PO Box 1824 ♦ La Jolla, CA 92038

You're cordially invited to our quarterly Pre-meeting Power Hour for Prospective Organizers:

"I know I'm organized...can I organize someone else?"
and
"Can I really make a living at this?"

Are you considering a career as a professional organizer, and want more inside information? Come to our Prospective Organizer Meeting and learn about the field of organizing, training opportunities, and NAPO from veteran professional organizer Bonne Zoe Winn (see Bio below.) Get answers in an intimate, private setting about difficult topics such as getting referrals, tips, and pitfalls. Also addressed will be the pervasive question about making a living in this up-and-coming profession.

Bonnie Zoe Winn

Bonnie Zoe Winn is the founder of Winn Unlimited. In 1974 she launched her bookkeeping and financial services business. Prior to that Bonnie worked in the audit department of Arthur Andersen & Company. She has a BS in Economics, University of Redlands.

Bonnie is committed to serving her clients' needs in a professional, efficient, and confidential manner. Accurate, thorough, and reliable, her many years of practice have given her a broad base of experience and a high level of expertise. She has developed long-term, mutually beneficial relationships with clients and other accounting professionals.

Currently

- Certified QuickBooks ProAdvisor
- PCLaw Registered Consultant
- Member, National Association of Professional Organizers
- San Diego Bookkeepers Network
- National Association of Female Executives
- National Organization of Women Business Owners

Bonnie has had many charitable commitments, including the Junior League of San Francisco, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Marin, and the Marin Designers' Showcase. One of her hobbies is open water swimming. She's a member of the La Jolla Cove Swim Club, the Dolphin Club of San Francisco, and participated in a successful English Channel relay swim in 1992. Bonnie sings with community choral groups, and most recently with the Dominican University Chorus.
