THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS SAN DIEGO CHAPTER GIVES BACK TO LOCAL COMMUNITY LIBRARY

SAN DIEGO, CA (March 19, 2009) – The National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) - San Diego chapter is pleased to announce a day of community outreach at the Mission Valley Library located at 2313 Fenton Parkway, San Diego, CA 92108. NAPO - San Diego volunteers will be showcasing their organizing talents by working with library staff to improve the organization of books and CDs for the public. NAPO – San Diego volunteers will be donating their time and skills at 11:00 AM on March 23, 2009.

About NAPO - San Diego

NAPO – San Diego is comprised of professional organizers that seek to give back to their colleagues, community and industry. Recently, a local news story discussed the lack of resources available to San Diego Public Libraries. NAPO – San Diego jumped at the opportunity to pitch in and help one of our most important public assets. According to Dhawn Hansen, President of NAPO – San Diego, "The library is a valuable resource for education, instilling the love of reading and one of my favorite places to go. The National Association of Professional Organizers – San Diego Chapter is proud to support the San Diego Public Library system as part of our Community Involvement Volunteer Program."

The National Association of Professional Organizers, The Organizing Authority® is dedicated to developing, leading and promoting professional organizers and the organizing industry. With over 35 NAPO - San Diego chapter members, you'll find speakers, authors, residential specialists, business organizers and manufacturers of organizing products. A variety of services are offered, including hands-on organizing, consulting, coaching, training, space planning and financial organizing.
